

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to compel 62 of their stations to air a partisan, anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is clearly breaking FCC regulations. The program is considered to be politically biased, and it is wrong to air a one-sided view benefitting the Republican Presidential candidate without equal time for the Democrat candidate.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules. Thank you.
